ARRESTED FOR TAKING A REPAIRERS SHOES

Having in his possession a pair of shoes belonging to a local newspaper man, which were stolen from a lodging house in the city last Friday, Mike Donohue, recently released from the city jail on a charge of vagrancy, was yesterday arrested by Deputy Sheriff Naylin and Allison and lodged in the city jail.

Donohue denies that he stole the shoes, but other articles of clothing stolen from the room at the same time were found in his possession. He says that they were given to him by Arthur McCann, who is presently at the city jail. The officers are inclined to discredit his story, as McCann has been in the city jail for several days.

McCann and Donohue are pals, and are said to be old offenders. McCann was sent up from this county in 1903, after being convicted of burglary. He served a short term in the State penitentiary. The officers recognized him yesterday from his photograph, which is in the "rogue's gallery" at the sheriff's office.

UMPIRES ARE TO BE PROTECTED BY LYNCH

New York, Dec. 21.—"You can take it from me that protection of umpires will be one of the principal planks in my platform," was the announcement which came today from Thos. J. Lynch, the new president of the National League. Further than that, "I have nothing to say yet as to my policies. You see I've been a long time out of the harness and until I am thoroughly familiar with every angle, I do not wish to make any statements."
